

WE ARE LOOKING FOR A SECURITY EXPERT (M/W/D) WITH A GERMAN LAW ENFORCEMENT BACKGROUND

About the Role

You are responsible for the security of the people, properties, and assets throughout Germany.

You will work cross-functionally with local, regional and HQ leadership, and own the development and execution of all security processes and programs in the region.

This is a 1 year self-employed limited contractor role, with a possible option of contract renewal and permanent employment at a later stage.

What You'll Do

Oversee security operations for all locations and staff throughout your respective area of operations.

Proactively identify problems without direction and independently make suggestions to correct such problems.

Manage guard force, trainings and vendor relationships.

Educate key stakeholders on security principles and implementation.

Conduct regular Site Security Assessments.

Implement the Physical Security, Asset Protection and Recovery, strategies in your region.

Implement policies and processes.

Establish quarterly metrics to track and measure success.

Use data to make decisions and provide insights to the Global Security and business leadership.

Maintain strong relationships and effective communication across all business operations.

Liaise with local law enforcement agencies and private sector peers, and cultivate these relationships.

Develop security awareness and education programs and materials, and provide frequent safety awareness.

What You'll Need

5 - 10 year's experience in German Law Enforcement (an additional corporate security background would be beneficial as well).

Demonstrated analytical and structured thinking.

A proven record of teamwork, collaboration, and leadership.

Recent hands-on experience in Germany. Creative 'can do' attitude towards problem solving.

Excellent written and oral communication with a strong attention to detail. Fluency in German and English.

Ability to manage multiple high priority security challenges in a constantly changing, fast-paced environment.

Able to scale with the business and thrive in a rapid growth environment.

Experience managing contract security services.

A well-established professional network of security contacts within Germany.

Willingness to move to Berlin and to travel frequently throughout your region is required.

A passion for the transportation industry.

If you feel that you meet all of the above criteria, in particular the Law Enforcement Background and the willingness to work with an initially fixed-term 1-year contract on contractor (self-employed) base, then we look forward to receiving your application stating your annual remuneration, availability and proof of the Law Enforcement Background.
